

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, dictates that Governments should not be changed lightly; but when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce us to absolute Tyranny, it is our duty, it is our right, to throw off such Government, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, dictates that Governments should not be changed lightly; but when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce us to absolute Tyranny, it is our duty, it is our right, to throw off such Government, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

CARMEN J. DELDEO

My heartiest congratulations to the Graduating Class of 1976. Success now rests in your hands; only ambition and perception of goals will determine your role in life. Remember life is a journey not a destination. I wish you continued health and happiness in your travels.

Sincerely,

Carmen J. Deldeo, Jr.

M-O-U-S-E.

Hey, Tim, it's time for change!

Just another one of those days!

A-Daa, what's going on?

Oh, that Mr. Deldio sure gets me MAD!

Wow, this is really FUN!

I think I'll just throw this book in the trash!

I'm BAD!

We do everything together!

Man, my eyes hurt.

I want to go HOME!

WORK, WORK, WORK . . .!

Mr. Deldio in one of his better moods.

Bend and stretch.

We caught cha!

It never works out.

A days work is never done.

You've got the cutest little fuzzy face.

Behind closed doors.

Poor Mr. Tiffney - how do you make it with m&m.

Good-ness.

Women's job is never done!

I am innocent.

Lonely daze.

What do ya think?

Tomorrow the world.

Not again, Ed?

Daily rations.

A penny for your thought.

Whatcha making Phil?

He can't do that!

And so am I.

Where's everyone going?

Devoted P.O.D. teacher.

Go ahead, take a spin.

Well, it's like this.

Wait 'til you see this.

Let me get my zipper up.

Isn't he great.

Reaching for the moon.

Make the next a double.

Yea, we're cool.

Remember when?

That's the last straw!

OK, back to work.

What am I doing wrong?

Get off my back lug.

Doing the usual.

Wow, what a ride.

Ed, do you smell smoke? I always smell smoke.

What's what?

Does she, or doesn't she.

I'm better at gym.

How's your love life?

Wait 'til he finds out we're sleeping.

Me and my shadow.

The unemployment line.

Still a growing boy.

Another Kilmer?

Another year down the drain.

I guess you're wondering why I called this meeting.

Now I got ya!

Not me, the ball!

Now class, wasn't that fun?

Wow, here I am again!

Where am I?

Well, there we were . . .

Laurel and Hardy.

AHHH . . .!
